

LD & The Blind Dates Play List

It depends on the nature of the gig!

A single concert or festival set would consist of some selected original material from our CD mixed with new original tunes and a few cover songs. The cover material we perform ranges from our own spin of "Message In A Bottle" to traditional pieces like "Angel Band" featured in the film, "Brother Where Art Thou?" More sets would include more cover material...things like "Ring Of Fire", "Keep The Devil In The Hole", and "Two More Bottles Of Wine". If the situation was right, LD might sing an acapella version of "The Scotsman", a mildly risqué, but very funny story. Sooner or later the Dates would break into fiery renditions of old traditional tunes like "Avalon" and if you don't watch out, and Tommy will erupt with "You've Got The Right String Baby, But The Wrong Yoyo".

The band's most often requested songs include the following:

Alison Krauss' "When You Say Nothing At All", "Steel Rails", "Oh Atlanta"
Any song ever recorded by Emmy Lou Harris
Many jazz standards and bluegrass classics.
